•Some areas of vocabulary, for beginning English Languages Learners

First: Listening to and understanding these words, in context, actions or pictures

Next: repeating approximations of words and saying words in structured settings. Then spontaneously saying words

Social interactions	Some basic action verbs, used in everyday life
Hello Hi Welcome How are you? I'm fine. What is your name? My name is Nice to meet you. Good morning Good afternoon Good night Good bye Nice to see you. See you soon Have a good day Have a good week end Yes Yes, please No No thank you Excuse me I'm sorry I need help What did you say? I don't understand. I don't know Please repeat that.	sit stand walk run play jump wait work talk say listen look think read write point can can't give take eat drink sleep wash dry go go away come come back come here do don't try practice ride drive push pull lift up Put down stop go wait Be careful
Objects in the immediate environment	Transportation: going places
School: door, window, floor, light, table, desk, chair, paper, book, pen, pencil, eraser, classroom, office, library, telephone, trash can, white board, shelf  Home: door window key table chair bed s ink refrigerator, trash can, toilet, shower, tub, telephone, tv, computer  Clothing: dress, skirt, pants, shirt, sweater, jacket, coat, hat, scarf, shoe shoes boot boots socks underwear belt purse bag  Foods: names for specific snackfoods, fruits, vegetables, meats, breads, desserts, beverages etc	Transportation: car bus train airplane BART bicycle Where live: name of own city and nearby cities, country, state, names of large streets where live, home address and phone # map road street boulevard drive bus schedule bus stop train stop BART station airport Signs: Restroom Women Men Entrance Enter Elevator Stairs Escalator Up Down Door open Door close Exit Emergency Exit Danger! Stop! Caution! Emergency! Do not enter! Fire! 911 Walk Don't Walk Stop Wait Go
People	Basic Body Parts
woman man boy girl baby mother father grandmother grandfather	head body arms legs face eyes ears nose mouth lips tongue tooth teeth arms hands fingers shoulder elbow daughter son sister brother aunt uncle friend doctor nurse teacher police firefighter  Pronouns: I me my mine You your  He him his She her We us our They them their	legs knee foot feet toe toes  Foods: snacks, fruits, vegetables, meats, beverages friend doctor nurse teacher police firefighter  Pronouns: I me my mine You your	legs knee foot feet toe toes
friend doctor nurse teacher police firefighter  Pronouns: I me my mine You your  He him his She her We us our They them their	legs knee foot feet toe toes  Foods: snacks, fruits, vegetables, meats, beverages
friend doctor nurse teacher police firefighter  Pronouns: I me my mine You your He him his She her We us our They them their  Question words  Who? = people What? = objects, things Where? = location When? = time on clock and calendar What time? What doing? = action words How? = process How many? = countable quantity How much? = quantity What color? = color	legs knee foot feet toe toes  Foods: snacks, fruits, vegetables, meats, beverages  Feelings and moods  happy glad excited pleased proud sad tired mad angry upset confused frustrated worried surprised hot warm cold